

Dedication	iii
Preface.....	xi
SECTION 1 What Do We Mean by Disability?.....	1
Chapter 1 Introducing Appreciative Disability Studies	3
Introduction	3
Disability studies	4
Appreciative inquiry	6
Appreciative disability studies	7
Perspective	9
Language	10
How this book unfolds.....	10
Chapter 2 Thinking about disability:
Models and definitions	13
Introduction	13
Historical models and definitions	13
Modern definitions	17
Why do we need a definition of disability?.....	21
Qualities of a good definition of disability.....	24
Contemporary definition of disability.....	29
Conclusion.....	30

Chapter 3	Talking about disability	33
	Introduction	33
	Guidelines for talking about disability	34
	1. Use people-first language	34
	2. Use internationally recognized language	34
	3. Avoid medical language	36
	4. Distinguish between patient, client, or consumer ...	37
	5. Speak directly about disability	38
	6. Speak correctly about the absence of a disability ...	38
	7. Avoid unnecessary emotional tone	38
	8. Avoid the word handicap	39
	9. Avoid stereotypes	40
	10. Understand context	40
	11. Determine whether disability is pertinent	40
	Conclusion	41
Chapter 4	Demographics of disability	43
	Introduction	43
	The prevalence of disability	43
	Data on disability	44
	Types and causes of disability	45
	International differences in disability	46
	Where does Canada fit in?	48
	Conclusion	51
Chapter 5	Attitudes toward disability	53
	Introduction	53
	What do we mean by attitudes?	54
	What do Canadian attitudes toward disability look like?	55
	Dualistic and paradoxical attitudes	57
	Stereotypes	59
	How can we account for attitudes toward disability?	65
	What can be done about attitudes toward disability?	67
	1. Contact	69
	2. A focus on children	70
	3. A focus on health professionals	71
	4. Rewards and incentives	71
	5. Discrepancy awareness	72
	Conclusion	72

SECTION 2 Disability and Self-Care	75
Chapter 6 The depth and breadth of self-care	77
Introduction	77
Physical self-care	80
Emotional self-care	82
Intellectual self-care	85
Spiritual self-care	87
Conclusion	89
Chapter 7 Demographics of self-care disability	91
Introduction	91
Who experiences self-care disability?	92
Unmet needs for assistance with self-care	94
Who provides assistance with self-care?	95
Children with disabilities	97
Attendant care	98
Non-human assistance with self-care	100
Conclusion	103
Chapter 8 Independence, autonomy, and capacity	105
Introduction	105
History of independence	107
Independence versus autonomy	109
Other important ideas	112
• Free will	112
• Choice	112
• Risk	113
• Self-determination	114
• Locus of control	115
• Capacity	115
Conclusion	116
Chapter 9 Health care and health maintenance	119
Introduction	119
The health of people with disabilities	119
Utilization of health services	123
Access to health services	124
• Finding a doctor and getting an appointment	125
• Entering and using the facilities	130
• Receiving a reasonable standard of care	132
Conclusion	135

Chapter 10	Spirituality and disability	139
	Introduction	139
	Defining spirituality	139
	Spiritual themes associated with disability	141
	• Finding meaning with disability	143
	Talking about spiritual themes with people with disabilities	145
	Addressing spiritual issues in practice	148
	Conclusion	150
Chapter 11	Sexuality and disability	151
	Introduction	151
	Barriers to sexuality	152
	• Person-level barriers	152
	• Development of human sexuality	154
	• Social barriers	154
	Conclusion	157
SECTION 3	Disability, Productivity, and Leisure	159
Chapter 12	Disability and work	161
	Introduction	161
	Paid work	162
	Rates of work participation	165
	Factors affecting work participation	166
	• Person factors	166
	• Environmental factors	168
	Workplace accommodations	168
	Whether or not to disclose	170
	Barriers to employment for people with disabilities	172
	Approaches to enhancing employment for people with disabilities	174
	• Strategies to enhancing employment for disabled people	175
	Conclusion	178
Chapter 13	Disability and education	183
	Introduction	183
	A right to education	184
	Inequalities in education	186
	Segregation, integration, inclusion	189

Inclusive education.....	191
Universal design for learning.....	192
Conclusion.....	193
Chapter 14 Disability and income	197
Introduction.....	197
Economic inequality.....	199
Costs associated with living with a disability	202
Sources of income for people with disabilities.....	205
Conclusion.....	209
Chapter 15 Disability and leisure.....	213
Introduction.....	213
Benefits of leisure	213
Categories of leisure.....	215
Time spent in leisure	216
Relationship of leisure to work.....	218
The right to leisure	222
Sports.....	222
Arts and culture	224
Play	227
Conclusion.....	228
SECTION 4 Disability in Society	231
Chapter 16 Human rights and disability.....	233
Introduction.....	233
Definition.....	234
History of the modern concept of human rights	234
Related concepts	238
• Equity.....	238
• Justice	239
• Discrimination	240
• Ableism.....	242
• Citizenship.....	242
Layers of human rights protection in Canada.....	243
• Provincial/Territorial level	243
• Federal level.....	243
• International level.....	244
Is it enough?.....	245
Conclusion.....	247

Chapter 17 Disability policy	251
Introduction	252
Definition	252
What is disability policy?	254
How does disability policy come about?	255
History of disability policy in Canada	257
• International Pull (1980–1995).....	257
• Provincial Push (1996–2005).....	258
• Federal Monitoring (2006–2014).....	259
• Federal Leadership (2015–present)	260
Jurisdiction in Canada	260
• Federal government.....	261
• Provincial governments.....	264
Evaluating disability policy	265
Electoral participation	269
Conclusion.....	271
Chapter 18 Disability and research.....	275
Introduction	275
Defining disability research	275
The research agenda for disability studies.....	279
Methods for disability research	280
• Design	280
• Sample.....	289
• Data collection.....	291
Ethics in disability research	292
Knowledge translation	293
Roles in research	295
Conclusion.....	297
Appendix 18.1: Guiding principles for research conducted under the auspices of the Canadian Disability Policy Alliance	299
SECTION 5 Themes in Appreciative Disability Studies.....	303
Introduction	304
Definitions and language	304
Demographics of disability.....	306
History of disability	307
Barriers.....	308

What are we going to do about it?.....	309
• Models of service	309
• Rights versus Responsibilities?	312
• Information and evidence.....	312
• Attitudes toward disability.....	313
How do we know if it's enough?.....	314

Glossary, References, and Index

Glossary	318
References.....	326
Index.....	359